

Clutch Names SN Media Services LLC as a Top Video Production Company in Connecticut for 2021

For over a decade, SN Media Services LLC has been working hard to provide the highest quality of video production services in New England and NYC. We have been producing industrial, corporate, training, documentary, and commercial videos. Our team consists of experienced, professional, and talented individuals who have been striving to help our clients succeed. After over 20 years providing camera crews to companies and producers from the US and Europe, and looking to improve on these services, CEO Sebastian Neville recently designed and built a prototype of his innovative camera cart that he calls “Shoot-Rover 2.0”. <https://shoot-rover.com>

Just recently, Clutch, a database of verified reviews, showcased their recent research of the best leading agencies this year. And guess what? SN Media Services LLC was highlighted on their prestigious list of the top video production companies in Connecticut for 2021!

To know more about Clutch, it is a B2B reviews and ratings platform that evaluates companies based on the quality of work, thought leadership, and client experience.
